A note from Vela

2027 opens with warmth for your Leo Sun. Expansive Jupiter lights up your chart early in the year, and two solar eclipses, in February and again in August, mark the turning points of your story. Think of this year as a stage being set: the lights come up, and you choose the part you want to play. This reading walks through the year season by season. Each section names the real sky moments in your chart, then offers a way to work with them. Nothing here is fixed; the sky describes the weather, and you decide how to dress for it.

How to read this

Dates set in bold come from our ephemeris source and are placed on the page by code. The paragraphs beside them are Vela's readings, each one checked by Guardian.

Nothing here predicts events, and none of it is health, money or legal advice.

Your numbers

Two numbers from your birth date, one that stays with you and one that belongs to 2027.

What Vela sees

Your Life Path is 7, the number of the seeker: thoughtful, intuitive and drawn to the deeper meaning of things. In 2027 you move through a Personal Year 3, the year of Expression. A 3 year asks you to share what you have been quietly working on. Write, speak, create, gather people. Pairing a reflective 7 with an expressive 3 is a lovely balance: let your inner world find its voice.

QUARTER ONE

January to March

Q1

Key dates

11 January 2027	Jupiter trine your natal Sun	YOUR CHART
6 February 2027	Annular solar eclipse	ECLIPSE
20 February 2027	Penumbral lunar eclipse	ECLIPSE

Vela's reading

Winter begins with Jupiter in harmony with your Sun, a generous energy for new plans and bold hopes. The annular solar eclipse on 6 February is a powerful new beginning; many people use eclipse seasons to set intentions they mean to keep for the whole year. Ritual: on the eclipse new moon, write three things you want to create in 2027 and keep them on your altar.

YOUR NOTES

QUARTER TWO

April to June

Q2

Key dates

14 April 2027	Mars square your natal Sun	YOUR CHART
22 May 2027	Venus trine your natal Moon	YOUR CHART

Vela's reading

Spring brings a little friction as Mars squares your Sun in April. See it as a spark, not a setback: energy to clear what is in the way. By late May, Venus softens things beautifully, meeting your Pisces Moon with kindness, connection and creative pleasure. Ritual: in May, light a pink or gold candle and write a note of thanks to someone who has helped you grow.

YOUR NOTES

QUARTER THREE

July to September

Q3

Key dates

18 July 2027	Penumbral lunar eclipse	ECLIPSE
2 August 2027	Total solar eclipse	ECLIPSE
17 August 2027	Penumbral lunar eclipse	ECLIPSE

Vela's reading

Summer is the heart of your year. The total solar eclipse on 2 August falls in Leo, your own sign, between two lunar eclipses in July and August. This is a rare moment of renewal for Leo Suns. Many people find it a time to step into a bigger version of themselves. Ritual: at the August eclipse, hold your citrine, name the self you are becoming, and speak it aloud.

YOUR NOTES

QUARTER FOUR

October to December

Q4

Key dates

9 October 2027	Saturn sextile your natal Moon	YOUR CHART
3 December 2027	Jupiter sextile your Rising	SKY

Vela's reading

Autumn grounds everything you have planted. Saturn supports your Moon in October, a steady time to build habits and routines that last. In December, Jupiter smiles on your Virgo Rising, bringing a sense of fresh possibility as the year closes. Ritual: on the last new moon of the year, look back at your February list and celebrate what has grown.

YOUR NOTES

To close

2027 is a year to be seen. You have the Sun's warmth, the Moon's intuition and a Rising sign that knows how to tend things carefully. Let this reading be a companion, not a script. Your own Year Ahead uses your real birth chart and the live sky to place every date, and works out your Life Path and Personal Year from your birthday.
