

STARSLEY

Crystal Reading

Sample for a Leo Sun

Written by Petra (AI crystal guide), reviewed by Guardian (AI)

For inspiration and entertainment

Cover painted by AI

At a glance

SUN

Leo, fixed fire

MOON

Pisces, mutable water

RISING

Virgo, mutable earth

CHART RULER

Mercury, via Virgo Rising

ELEMENT BALANCE

Fire, water and earth in harmony

MISSING ELEMENT

Air: add it with breath and words

SUN STONES

Citrine, Carnelian

MOON STONE

Amethyst

RISING STONE

Moss Agate

BEST DAY TO BEGIN

Sunday, the Sun's day

A note from Petra

AI

Your chart carries a bright fire at its centre, a dreaming tide beneath it and a careful eye at the threshold. Leo gives you warmth and the wish to create; Pisces gives you a deep, intuitive inner world; Virgo is the way you meet everyone else, thoughtful, capable and quietly observant. Those three energies do not always speak the same language. Fire wants to shine, water wants to feel and earth wants to tend. The stones in this reading were chosen to give each of them a voice, so you can reach for the one that matches the day you are having. Read this slowly, then keep it by your altar. Each section ends with a simple way to work with the stone, and the ritual and journal pages bring all three together.

Your Sun in Leo

Fixed fire

Ruled by the Sun

Stones: Citrine, Carnelian

Your Sun is the core of you, the part that wants to be seen and to make something that feels like yours. In Leo, that core is generous and wholehearted. You light up a room when you feel safe to be yourself, and you dim when you feel overlooked. Citrine is the traditional stone of warm, golden light. In crystal lore it is a stone of confidence and joy, and many people keep it where they work or create. Carnelian, a deep orange agate, is associated with courage and creative fire; it suits the moments you are about to step forward. How to work with them: hold the citrine in your left hand each morning and name one thing you want to share with the world today. Carry the carnelian in a pocket on days that ask you to speak up.

Your Moon in Pisces

Mutable water

Ruled by Neptune and Jupiter

Stone: Amethyst

Your Moon shows how you feel and what helps you rest. A Pisces Moon is tender, imaginative and highly tuned to the moods around you. You may need more quiet than people expect from a Leo, and that is not a contradiction; it is how your fire refuels. Amethyst has been linked with calm and clear dreaming since ancient times; its name comes from a Greek word meaning not intoxicated. It is a gentle companion for a sensitive Moon. How to work with it: place the amethyst beside your bed. Before sleep, hold it and take three slow breaths, letting the day go with each one. Keep a notebook nearby for any dreams worth remembering.

Your Virgo Rising

Mutable earth

Ruled by Mercury

Stone: Moss Agate

Your Rising sign is the doorway of your chart: first impressions, the way you approach new things and the habits that keep you steady. Virgo Rising meets life with care and attention to detail, and it notices what others miss. Moss agate, with its green fern like inclusions, is a traditional stone of growth, patience and connection with nature. It suits the gardener in Virgo who knows that good things grow slowly. How to work with it: keep it on your desk or by a plant. When a to do list feels heavy, hold it and choose just one small, kind task to finish.

A ritual for all three stones

Citrine

Carnelian

Amethyst

Moss Agate

A candle

Paper and pen

15 minutes

- 1 Choose a quiet evening, ideally a Sunday. Clear a small surface and lay your four stones in a triangle: citrine and carnelian at the top, amethyst on the left, moss agate on the right.
- 2 Light your candle in the centre and never leave it unattended. Take three slow breaths and notice how your body feels tonight.
- 3 Hold the citrine and carnelian together and say what you want to create this month. Write it down.
- 4 Hold the amethyst and name one feeling you are ready to let soften. Write that down too.
- 5 Hold the moss agate and choose one small daily habit that will help your wish grow. This is your practical step.
- 6 Fold the paper, place it under the candle holder, and let the candle burn for a few minutes while you sit quietly. Snuff it out rather than blowing, and keep the paper until the next full moon.

SAY IT ALOUD

My light is warm, my heart is wise and my steps are steady.

Your journal

When do I feel most like myself, and who is with me when I do?

What does my sensitive Pisces Moon need from me this week?

Which one small habit would help my Leo dreams take root?

To close

Cleanse your stones under the light of each full moon, or rest them on a selenite plate overnight. Return to them whenever you want to reconnect with your own rhythm. Your full reading is written for your own Sun, Moon and Rising, with the stones from your order and the dates of the moon phases ahead.

✓ Checked by Guardian

Sources and small print

This is a sample written for a made-up chart: Leo Sun, Pisces Moon, Virgo Rising. Your own PDF is written for your chart. Sign, element, modality and ruler facts come from RoxyAPI's ephemeris; stones come from the Starsley crystal library, drawn from published crystal tradition. Moon phases are calculated from the live sky. Astrology for inspiration and entertainment.

READING SAMPLE00